The students have been filling our room with their eye-catching artworks under the guidance of Mrs Bergquist. These are all linked to reading and writing tasks in class. This term we have been looking at the remarkable works of author Julia Donaldson, revisiting the all-time favourites such as 'The Gruffalo' and 'Room on a Broom'. The 'witches' will feature in a future edition.

From the Principal's Desk

It has been a beautiful spring week only 1 week left of school this term.

A huge, huge thank you to Mr Prestwich, Mr McMahon, Mr Stayt (Simon) and Mr Gallant (Peter) for the wonderful work you did on the weekend. The students love their extended basketball area and were very excited to be able to play on it on Tuesday. A huge thank you also to Mr Ian Brims (Brim's Concrete) for supplying the concrete free of charge. We feel very special – thank you to you all. The students are looking forward to playing a game of basketball with our Sporting Schools basketball coach on Friday. Brett is going to teach the students how to play 3-on-3 basketball on the area.

The excitement is growing for our fun day next Thursday, 24 September. The students have started practising ball games this week. For the fun day, the students can wear mufti in their school house colours (Cedar – green and Beantree – red), as well as their school hat and joggers. PLEASE make sure clothes are sports appropriate (no skirts or dresses please). The SRC are asking for a gold coin donation on this day – the money is being donated to the Heart Foundation. NOTE: Canteen will also be on this day instead of Friday - and we will be having a PIE only day. An order form for pies and or spinach and feta triangles is on the next page. Orders need to be returned to school on MONDAY 21 September. Recess will be as normal, that is, you can order or purchase the normal Friday menu items (cakes/noodles/apple slinkies etc).

Slushies started again yesterday... they were a huge success. If you would like your child/ren to have one, please send the money with your child/ren on Wednesday - $1 per slushie. This is a great little fundraiser for the SRC. Thank you for your ongoing support.

REPEAT: Book Week will be running from 17 - 23 October (later than usual) with the theme being "Curious Creatures, Wild Minds". This year we will be holding a fancy-dress parade where students don costumes and participate in a number of exciting activities. More detail and guidelines will come, but for now we thought we would give you plenty of notice to start thinking about the theme and possible costumes. If you wish to look at shortlisted books, head to <https://cbca.org.au/>

At this stage there is no news regarding restrictions for next term. We will continue going along as we have been this term and will advise you if there are any changes. I'm staying positive (or being an ostrich with my head in the sand!!).

NOTE: Mrs Harper lost a ceramic brooch in the playground last week. It is ducks on a pond. Can you please check with your child/ren to see if they have seen it. Thanks

Focus on New Fathers

A new service available to expecting and new dads

NSW Health has, for many years, provided parenting support, information and screening that has focussed on new mums. Now, we are trying to find better ways of offering the same kind of support to new dads.

There is a large body of research focused on the importance of the first 2000 days of a child's life, showing it is a critical time for development - physically, cognitively, socially and emotionally. What happens in the first 2000 days has been shown to have impacts throughout life.

Dads have an important role to play in their child's life, but unfortunately 1 in 20 dads will experience antenatal depression and 1 in 10 dads will experience post-natal depression. This service aims to assist fathers to feel confident and supported in their role. Through better supporting fathers, we are hoping to better prepare future generations.

The Focus on New Fathers pilot program has rolled out in four Local Health Districts, including the Northern NSW Local Health District. It is a free and voluntary service for fathers over the age of 18, from all cultural backgrounds. Once a father has enrolled through www.sms4dads.com, the father will receive regular text messages to assist with understanding how their baby is developing from their baby's point of view.

The messages focus on the fathers self-care, support to their partner and father-child attachment. The messages can start from as early as 16 weeks into the pregnancy and continue up until 24 weeks following the birth of the baby. The messages will also check in with how the father is feeling at times when parenting is extra challenging.

Fathers are able to withdraw from the service at any time. Those that have used the SMS4Dads service previously have found it to be incredibly valuable, with a previous participant saying

"the way the messages would pop up and sometimes the timing was just right to give you a boost or a smile amidst everything. Like a mate tapping you on the shoulder".
